INDEX

TO THE SIXTEENTH VOLUME

A

Arbitrary Taxation of the East India Company; efforts making in Bengal to resist the, 147.

America, Spanish, 249.

African Association, and Ledyard the Traveller, 261.

Algiers, State of, 289. Geographical Description, 289. Population, 290. Character of the Inhabitants, 291. History, ib. Military Force, 293. State of the Christian Captives, before and since the Expedition of Lord Exmouth, 295.

Apprehended Danger, Groundless Nature of the, of a Free Press in India, 360.

Appeal to the Editor, Letter of, from an unknown Correspondent at Bombay, 569.

Arracan, State of our newly acquired Territory in, 169.

B

Bengal Army, Declining Attachment and Fidelity of the, 113.

Births, 211, 395, 593.

Bengal, General Letter of News from, 376, 565.

Buchanan, Grant to Captain Thomas, 194.

C

Censorship of the Press in India, Origin, History, and present State of the, 65. 297. 447.

Colombia, Recollections of, in 1812, 120.

Carnatic Debt, Debate at the East India House on the, 203.

Civil and Military Intelligence, 204, 391, 583.

Captive, The, to his Harp, 248.

College of Physicians, Manifesto of the, 266. Intended Petition to Parliament of the Independent Physicians, 275.

Court of Directors, A Call to the, 365.

Committee, Letter of Mr. Babington's Successor in the, 417.

Cyrenaica, Recent Travels in the, 494.

Capture of the Chief Mate, of the Brig Meridian, Narrative of the, 581.

Central India, Reported New Government in Upper and, 164.

D

Dimensions of the Ancient Egyptian Cubit, Determination of the, 142.

Deaths, 211, 395, 593.

Despotism, 279.

Discontinuance of the 'Shems al Akhbar,' a Native Newspaper, 175.

Debate at the East India House, 194. Grant to Captain Thomas Buchanan, ib. On the Stamp Regulations in Calcutta, 198. On Imprisonment for Debt in India, 201. On the Suspension from Office of an Indian Judge, 202. On the Burmese War, ib. On the Native Languages, 203. On the Carnatic Debt, ib.

Drama, The Chinese, 467.

Dillon, Trial of Captain, 547.

E

East India Company, Claims of the, to the Right of imposing Taxes without Limitation, 1.

Enthusiasm, Lines to, 63.

Emigration, and the East India Company's Monopoly, 129.

East India Company's Army, proposed Improvement in the, 145.

Expedition from India to Egypt, Journal of the, Chap. I., 135. Departure of the Author for India, in the Company's ship, Cuffnells, 236. Encounter a French Squadron, 237. The Ship grounds, on entering the Tagus, ib. Arrival of the Convoy in India, 238. Chap. II., 238. Account of India, 239. General aspect of the Country, ib. Geographical Features of Hindoostan, ib. Increase of the English Power in India, 240. Causes of the War with Tippoo Saib, ib. East India Company, 241. Affairs of its Government, ib. Military Force of India, 242. Description of the Sepoys, 243. Chap. III., 469. Sensation caused by the French Expedition to Egypt, 469. The British Government takes Measures to prevent its Success, 470. Chap. IV., 470. Description of Calcutta and Fort William, 470. Manners and Customs of the Inhabitants, 471. Preparations for a Secret Expedition, 475. Departure, 476. Island of Saugor, ib. Chap. V., 476. Description of Trincomalee, 477. Appearance of the Island of Ceylon, 479. English Forces there, 480. Colonel Wellesley takes command of the Expedition, 485. The Fleet receives orders to repair to Point de Galle, ib.

East, Letters from the,—Penang, 281.

Elphinstone, Governor, the late Governor Adam, and the Indian 'John Bull,' 575.

F

Free Trade to the East, 126.

Fergusson, Mr. Robert Cutlar, (from the 'Bengal Hurkaru,' of August 17th, 1827,) 386.

G

General Summary of News from the Eastern World, 160.

Governor-General, Progress of the, in his Tour through India, 217.

H

Homer, On the Poems attributed to, 81.

I

Italy, Travels in, by an East Indian Home on Leave, No. I., 441. Approach to Italy from Switzerland, 441. Sardinia, 442. Laggo Maggiore, ib. Enormous Statue, 443. Austrian Territory, ib. Como, ib. Queen Caroline, 444. The Iron Crown, ib. Entrance to Milan, 445.

Introduction of Trial by Jury and Abolition of Slavery, by Sir Alexander J. Johnstone, in Ceylon, 131.

J

Journal kept at Bangkok, 333.

Judgments of the Three Judges of the King's Court, at Calcutta, on Registering the Indian Stamp Act, 503. Judgment of Sir Charles Grey, 503. Judgment of Sir John Franks, 514. Judgment of Sir Edward Ryan, 522.

Journey across the Peninsula of India, from Madras to Bombay, No. VI., 97. Rajah of Courg, 97. Indian Hunting, ib. Hindoo Palaces, ib. Women, 98. Architecture, 99. Animals, 100. Night Travelling, 101. Burning Forests, ib. No. VII., 309. Elephant Feeding, 309. Cheap Houses, 310. Cultivation of Pepper, 312. Caste of the Nayers, 313. Singular Customs, ib. No. VIII., 460. Arrival at Cananoor, 461. Society of this Station, ib. Voyage to Calicot and Description of that Place, 462.

L

Latest Intelligence, Summary of the, connected with the Eastern World, 160. Insurrection in Chinese Tartary, 164. Observation on the Expense of the smaller Governments of India, ib. Departure of the Governor-General from the Hills, on his Return to the Presidency, 167. Advantage of colonizing India by British Settlers, ib. Newly acquired Territory in Arracan, 169. Account of the Progress of the Governor-General in his Tour, 173. Suppression of all future Public Meetings, 174. Condition of the Natives of India to appreciate the Value of Newspapers, 176. Absurdity of forcing them on their Acceptance, ib. Course of Inquiry relating to Asam, ib. Information relative to China, and some of the Northern States of Hindoostan, 178. Account of a Meeting in Calcutta, to do honour to the Memory of the Marquis of Hastings, 180. Promised Communication of the Government Editor, on the subject of Gwalior and its Affairs, 182. General News relating to Arracan, Nepal, Bengal Club, Native Papers, Kabul, Mahaarjee Runjeet Sinh, and Gwalior, 184. Account of the Wreck of the Ship John, 186. General News from Singapore, 190. Proceedings of the Meeting held at the Town Hall on the 18th of July, 1827, ib. Document regarding some Religious Dispute, put forth by a Member of the Parsees, 191.

Languages of Asia, Observations on the Classification of the, 541. Family of the Semetic Languages, ib.

M

Monument to the Marquis of Hastings, at Calcutta, 180.

Marriages, 211. 395. 593.

Medical Reform, Progress of, in England, 266.

Manifesto of the College of Physicians, 266. Intended Petition to Parliament of the Independent Physicians, 275.

Madras Army, Injustice to the, 350. Fees on Commissions thrice paid, 352.

Munro, Character of Sir Thomas, from a Correspondent on the Coast, 381.

Madras, General Letter of News from, 143. 382. 556. 559. 564.

Mexico, or New Spain, 535. Its Situation, ib. Metallic Produce, 536. Its Population, 540.

N

New Post and Settlement of Amherst, on the River of Martaban, Advantages of the, 373.

O

'Oriental Herald,' To the Indian Correspondents of the, 218.

Oriental Works, Plan for effecting Translations of, 353.

Oriental Literature, Progress of, 420.

P

Postscript—Suppression of another English Newspaper, in India, 215. 389.

Punishment of Death, Inquiry into the Right or Justice of, 421.

Pompilius, Numa, and Egeria. Scene,—The African Forest, by Moonlight, 457.

Prince of Wales' Island Gazette, Suppression of the, 555.

Poetry—Lines on Navarino, 15. Spanish Serenade, 32. For Ever Thine, 80. Ancient Song of Victory, 96. Voice of Home, 102. To a Lady Singing, 119. Stanzas, 125. Morning Star, 232. O'Kavanagh, 234. Lines addressed to Mr. Thomas Moore, on his visiting Ireland, 340. Sonnet on the Death of Toussaint L'Ouverture, 349. An Evening Walk in Bengal; by Bishop Heber, 387. Woman's Friendship, 419. Kindred Minds, 429. Lines to R. J. W. M., 439. Memnon, 455. The Death-charge of Mahonnal, 464. Junius Brutus, 468. Sonnet to a Young Lady, 459. Bishop Heber to his Wife, 486. The Missioner, 493. The Snow-drop, 502. Lines, addressed to a Young Lady, who presented the Author with some Lilies of the Valley, 534. Song, 540. Lines written amongst the Jura Mountains, just after hearing of the Death of Mr. Canning, 554.

Parsee Document, Curious, 192.

R

Reforms in India, Suggested by Sir Edward East, No. II., 17. Different Inhabitants of Calcutta, 17. Wills, 18. Marriage, Divorce, and Separation, 19 Interest of Money, ib. Caste, 20. State of Infants' Property for Necessary Subsistence, 21. Remedy, 22.—Petitions, ib. Natives of India, other than Hindoos; Mohammedans and Christians, 23. Sikes, 24. Burmhans, ib. Parsees, Chinese, Ceylonese, and Javanese, ib. Inheritance and Succession of Foreigners, settled here to be governed by Local Laws, ib. Arabs, 25. Jews, ib. Portuguese and other Christians, of Native or Foreign Extraction, and Half Caste, 25. Portuguese, Armenians, ib. Half Castes, 26. Condition of Native Christians, 27. Hindoo Converts, ib. Ram Mohun Roy, 28. Remedy, 29. Points of Immediate Necessity, 30. Probate of Wills and Administration, ib. Written Contracts for Trial by the Supreme Court, 31. No. III. 255. Of the Reforms of the Mofussil Laws, 255. The Criminal Code already altered, ib. Suggested Remedy, 256. Retaining Native Laws, 257. Title of Inheritance, ib. Succession, ib. Marriage, ib. Adoption, 258. Caste, ib. Revenue, ib. Advantage of English Law, over other Systems, ib. Mode of Administering the Criminal Code, 259. Political Judicial Policy, 260. No. IV., 431. Second Part of the Reform of the Mofussil Law, 431. Language, ib. English Pleaders, 432. Modes of Introducing English Pleaders, ib. Appointment of Mofussil Barristers, Solicitors, and Attorneys, 433. No Salaries to Barristers and Solicitors as such, 434. Future Benefits from Change of System, ib. Barristers, Judges, and Magistrates, 435. Solicitors, and Attorneys, 436. Pundit, Moulevee, Interpreter, and Peons, ib. Village Policy and Civil Jurisdiction, ib. Police, Barrister, and Collector, 437. Revenue, ib. Appeal, Re-hearing, ib. Necessity of a Change of System, 438. Retaining the Rule under British Magistrates, ib. Extension of System to meet the Occasion, ib. Sheriff, ib.

S

Summary Commitment, Doctrine of, for Constructive Contempts of Parliament, and Courts of Justice, No. III., 103; No. IV., 315; No. V., 487.

Services of King's and Company's Troops, at the Siege of Bhurtpore, 137.

'Shems al Akhbar,' a Native Newspaper, Discontinuance of the, 175.

Shipwreck of the John, on her entry into the river Hooghley, 184.

Stamp Act, An Appeal to England, against the New, 219.

Shipping Intelligence, 214. 397. 596.

Stamp Regulations, on the, in Calcutta, 198.

Slavery, Impolicy of—East Indian Monopoly, and West Indian Privilege, 341. Remarks on the probable Extension of our Commerce, 348.

Stephen Babington, Statue to the Memory of the late, 416.

Suspension from Office of an Indian Judge, on the, 202.

T

Trial by Jury, Introduction of, and Abolition of Slavery, by Sir Alexander Johnston, in Ceylon, 131.

Treaty with Siam, Account of the, 369.

Troops, Medal to the, who served in Ava, 545.

V

Vindex, Letters of, and A. B., in the 'Bombay Courier,' 576.

W

War in Greece, The, 33.

War in the Punjab, Account of the, 160.

PRINTED BY W. LEWER, 147, STRAND.